20 April 2022

To: all AAI Clubs

The date for the AGM for Athletics Auckland has now been fixed for Thursday 28th July 2022. A timetable of deadlines leading up to the AGM is outlined below.

You will find accompanying this notice nomination forms for various officers of the organisation:

- Patron
- President
- Board of Directors
- Honorary Auditor
- Honorary Treasurer

The Board request that Clubs identify and nominate strong candidates who can assist to develop and build our sport into the future. Please use the nomination forms attached. Two vacancies for the Board become available at each AGM. The two new Directors are elected for a two-year term, though existing Directors can re-stand for election if they wish.

Nominations for Merit Awards are also requested. These recognise service to athletics. Awards will be approved by a majority vote at the AGM. A merit award may only be given to a person recommended by the Board (who has first been nominated by a Club), and the Board may not recommend more than 3 persons to any AGM. Merit Award Nomination form attached.

There is a call for Remits, identifying where there may be a need for an AAI rule change. These need to be in writing and emailed or delivered to the AAI offices by 5pm Wednesday 29th June 2022.

There is also a call for Notices of Motion, identifying an issue for discussion which does not revolve around an AAI rule change. These also need to be in writing and emailed or delivered to the AAI offices by 5pm Wednesday 29th June 2022.

For further information please view the AAI Constitution attached, or click on link <https://athleticsauckland.co.nz/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/AAI-Constitution-Updated-04072019.pdf>

For Honorary Life Membership refer to clause 5.7 and for Merit Awards refer to clause 10.
