

Robin Miller

Robin Miller is a business and organisation transformation leader, company director, coach and mentor with more than 20 years of senior leadership experience across New Zealand, the United Kingdom and the United Arab Emirates.

As Director of Lean Integrated Solutions Limited, Robin partners with organisations across the public and private sectors to deliver major transformation programmes, organisational reviews, business cases, investment analysis and improvement initiatives. His professional background includes strategy development, governance, general management, leading large-scale operational and business functions, organisational capability development, operational improvement, and programme leadership.

Athletics has been a constant throughout Robin's life. A former New Zealand representative race walker and member of national high-performance squads, Robin won four New Zealand age-group athletics titles and set a New Zealand record during his competitive career. He still holds Otago athletics records set in 1988, almost four decades later. Today, Robin remains actively involved in the sport and competes as a Masters runner at regional, national and international levels.

In August 2026, Robin was elected to the Athletics Auckland Board.

Robin is passionate about helping develop pathways and opportunities that enable athletes to thrive. He is particularly interested in athlete development, governance excellence, organisational sustainability, and growing participation and engagement across the Auckland region. He believes Athletics Auckland has an important role to play in creating opportunities for athletes of all ages and abilities, while strengthening the pathways that support both participation and performance.

Robin brings a practical, collaborative approach to governance and is committed to supporting Athletics Auckland's vision to enable, empower and inspire athletics for all.
